ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Mauricio Lopez, shall be sentenced to a term of 12 months. The first six months shall be served in a community correctional center, during which time defendant may maintain his employment. Defendant shall self-surrender to the community correctional center as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer. The second six months will be served on Home Detention subject to electronic monitoring by the U.S. Probation Office. Upon satisfaction of this 12-month term of detention, defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a further term of 3 years. This term consists of 3 years on Count 1, and 1 year on Counts 15 and 16 of the First Superseding Indictment. All such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight drug tests per month as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, saliva and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;

4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential substance abuse treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for alcohol abuse. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge;
7. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; and
8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $93,865.66 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

A partial payment of $400 shall be paid immediately. The balance shall be due during the period of supervised release, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the directions of the United States Probation Office. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least $100 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
U.S. Treasury	$93,865.66

Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for immediate payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The defendant is advised of his right to file an appeal within 10 days of entry of judgment.

Government's oral motion for dismissal of any remaining counts is GRANTED. In the interest of justice, the Court ORDERS the dismissal of all remaining counts.

Defendant's bond is exonerated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
